

Precision Design

With a strong a passion for design, it's no surprise architect Mervyn and his wife Lily designed and put together a bespoke Italian style kitchen in their self build home in Newtownabbey 20 years ago. However, although it was modern for the nineties, the couple felt it was time for a radical change and found Parkes Interiors were the right company to fulfill their needs.

